VANDERBURGH COUNTY SUBSTITUTE FOR IRS FORM W-9

This form is used by Vanderburgh County as a substitute for the W-9 Form. This information is to be placed on record in the Vanderburgh County Auditor's Office. According to federal tax law, we are required to obtain Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TIN) of all individuals and businesses to whom reportable payments are made. The interest on a tax refund is a reportable payment. You will receive a 1099INT next year for the interest on your refund. The Taxpayer Identification Number is the number under which taxes are filed. A Social Security Number (SSN) must be used for an individual or sole proprietorship. If you file joint tax returns, you must put both names but only the husband's SSN on this form. An Employer Identification Number (EIN) or a Federal Identification Number (FIN) must be used for a Company, Corporation, Partnership or Trust and match name on file with IRS.
